Discourses of Change 3
Social Sciences
Political Economy
Politics
Idealist
Ordered - natural Communism
Anarchic - no authorities
Socialist Labour - democratic uncompromising
Progressive
Social Liberal
Liberals (history)
Liberal Democrats
Democrats (USA)
Social Collective
New Labour
SDP - early failure
Conserve - Conservative/ Republicans
National/ Historic
Libertarian
Authoritarian
Left
Militant Labour
Trotskyites
Right
Fascists and Neo-Fascists
Economic Technology
Market
Oligopolies - international power
Imperfect - competition but under giants
International stock markets
International finance
Planning
Centrist - failed plans
Decentralised - lack of accountability
Government Budget - huge and dominant
Private finance State
Postindustrial (postmodern)
Internet
Just in time
Individualist taste
Niche markets
Marketing
Rapid innovation
Work teams - tasks
Underclass
Demerging/ decentralisation
Franchising
Sociology
Conflict
Class power - socialist failure
Bureaucratic logic - cog in machine
Consensus
Conscience Collective - mass culture
Functional Systemic - system harmony
Reciprocity - give and take Interaction
Symbolism - language and communication
Conversation - liberty and space
Dialogue - groups and democratic ethos
Modernist
Communicative Reason - negotiate to disinterested truth
Postmodern
Society as dramas in flux
Social Anthropology
Sociological
Unconscious Structure
Binary opposites Structuralism classification
Conflict within structures
Cohesion from balancing oppositions
Idealised whole and real variations
Primitive classification and logic
Kinship-political classifying
Kinship to States
Mind structure
Grammar
Development and Dependency - radical
Anti-colonial
Economics and Exchange
Cultural
Reciprocity binding individuals
Ritual give and take - order
Fieldwork
Thick description
Ethnography
Roles and constraints
Custom constrains individualism
Narrative and writing
Psychology
(Educational)
Gestalt - holist gap filling and eureka essence
Cognitive - processing, habit; concrete to abstract
Cognitive developed - whole confident meaningful person
Humanistic - freedom, needs and fulfilment
Behaviourism - in and out
Psychoanalysis
Child
Sexuality
Male - Female
Dreams

02/10/03