

We know how difficult it is to get to a Unitarian church these days. Now you can plan your journey late at night if you cannot get to sleep. Here is a garden of hedges and grass, and you walk along the grass to get to the chapel, using the gaps in the hedges to make progress.

Home