

HL 215 Black and White

David Arkin

Black and White

Earl Robinson (David Dawson)

Accordion

The

8

Acc.

ink is black, the page is white, To -

10

Acc.

geth - er we learn to read and write, To 12

Acc.

read and write. And now a child can

15

Acc. un - der - stand This is the law of all the land,

18

Acc. All the land. The ink is black, the 21

Acc. page is white, To - geth - er we learn to 23

Acc. read and write, To read and write. The 27

Acc. slate is black, the chalk is white, The words stand out so

30

Acc. clear and bright, So clear and bright. And now at last we 34

Acc. plain - ly see The al - pha - bet of lib - er - ty, Lib - er - ty. The

39

Acc. slate is black, the chalk is white, To - geth - er we learn to read and write, To read and write. A child is black, a 47

42

Acc.

Acc.

child is white, The whole world looks up - on the sight,, Up - on the sight. For ver - y well the whole world knows

50

Acc.

54

Acc.

This is the way that free - dom grows, Free - dom grows! A

58
Acc. child is black, a child is white To - geth - er we learn to

61
Acc. read and write, To read and write. The 65

Acc. world is black, the world is white, It turns by day and

68
Acc. then by night, It turns by night. It turns so each and

Andante

72

Acc. ever - y one Can take their stat - ion in the sun, In the sun! The

77

Acc. world is black, the world is white To geth - er we learn to 80

Acc. read and write, To read and write.