

SF 069 Caleb

Frank Clabburn

I Stand Outside Your Door

Alan Williams

$\text{♩} = 72$

Piano

Pno.

Pno.

Pno.

I stand out - side your

27

Pno. door, will you ad - m - it me? I have no home, no

31

Pno. land, no friend, no life I ask so l - it - tle

34

Pno. from your great a - b - un-dance, A place to sleep, some

37

Pno. food for child, for wife I have no pride, no

41

Pno.

plea, ex - cept 'a - sy lum,' A place of 45

Pno.

peace, bey - ond our world of strife

49

Pno.

We heard a pro - mise from your dis - tant

52

Pno.

co - un - try: A whis - per of your 55

Pno.

peace through sounds of war; We trav-elled long, r - e - jec - ted, cast a - su - n - der, No rest we found, far

58

Pno.

61

Pno.

from our nat - ive shore. We had no pride, no plea ex - cept 'a -

66

Pno.

sy - lum', Will you pro - vide for us an o - pen

72

Pno.

door. And so we come and wait up - on your 76

Pno.

bo - r - ders: An - on - y - mous, for - sak - en and a lone. Where now your pro - mise? Where is love, com -

80

Pno.

83

Pno.

pas - sion? Where now the hope? Has your heart turned to stone?

87

Pno.

For - get your pride, and hear our plea 'a - sy lum',

92

Pno.

And let us know one coun - try and one home.

97

Pno.

And let us know one coun - try and one home.