

HL 056 Faithfulness

Eleanor Shipp Johnson

Faith

William M. Runyan (adapted)

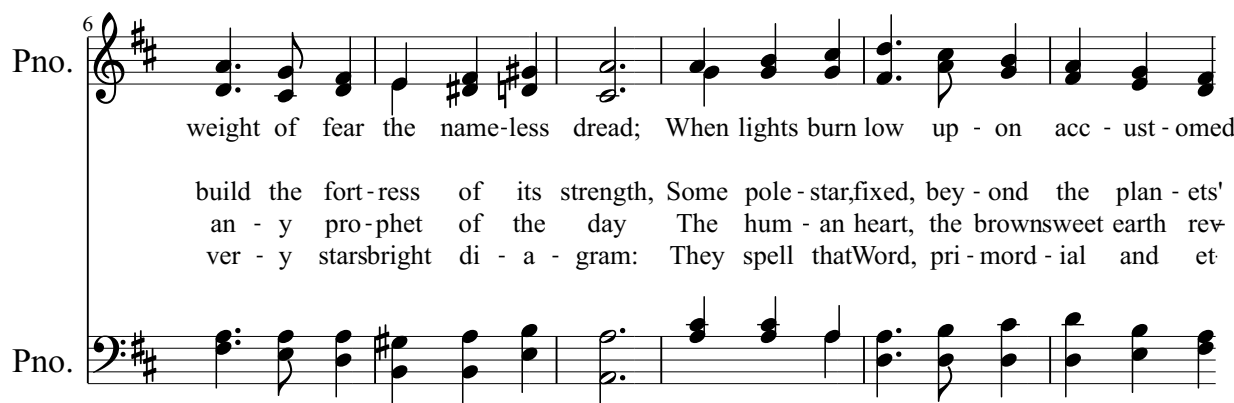

Piano

In this stern ho - ur, when-e'er the spir - it falt - ers Bef - ore the Faith seeks a ro - ck, imm - ov - a - ble, un - chang ing, On which to Old - er than an - y creed of our - r e - volv ing, Wis - er than Yet through them bo - th there runs a fire sup - er nal, Part of the

Piano

Pno.

6
weight of fear the name-less dread; When lights burn low up - on acc - ust - omed build the fort - ress of its strength, Some pole - star, fixed, bey - ond the plan - ets' an - y pro - phet of the day The hum - an heart, the brown sweet earth rev - er - y stars bright di - a - gram: They spell that Word, pri - mord - ial and et Pno.

Pno.

12
alt - ars, And mean - ing - less are half the pray - ers we've said.
rang - ing, Stead - fast and true through - out the the jour - ney's length.
olv - ing! Take these O faith! al - though they bo - th be clay.
er - nal, Which said, "Bef ore Jeh - o - vah wa - s, I AM!"

Pno.