Seek Not Afar for Beauty

Frederick C. Atkinson

Piano

Seek not a - far for beau - ty, lo it glows,
Go not ab - road for happ - i - ness for see,
Dream not of nob - le ser - vice else - where wrough;
In won - der work - ings or some bush a - flame,

In dew wet grass - es all ab - out your feet;
It is a flow - er bloom - ing at your door,
The sim - ple dut - y that aw - aits your hand
We look for God who seems to be con - cealed;

In birds, in sun - shine, child - like fac - es sweet,
Bring love and jus - tice home, and then no more
Is God's voice speak - ing with div - ine com - mand:
But in earth's com - mon things God stands rev - ealed,

Pno.

In stars and moun - tain sum - mits topped with snows.
You'll won - der in what dwell - ing joy may be.
Life's com - mon deeds build all that saints have thought.
While grass and flowers and stars spell out the name.
