

HS 355 Yorkshire

Malcolm Quin, 1882

Now Comes the Light

John Wainwright, 1750

Allegretto

Piano

Now comes the light for which our souls have sought,
Now comes the love, which makes all souls but one,
O light and peace! O love and truth su - preme!

Organ

Pno.

O - ver the cloud - y path - ways of our life; Now comes the Calm - ly e - merg - ent from the strife of years; Now comes the Ye come, and com - ing, van - quish our des - pair; Ye bring us

Org.

Pno.

peace for which we long have wrought, Crown - ing with truth, which long our souls did shun, Lift - ing us faith, ye bring the aug - ust dream Of some great

Org.

14

Pno.

Org.

glad res - ults our cease - less strife; O light and peace! Ye high a - bove all doubts and fears; O love and truth! Ye glad - ness which we now pre - pare; O make us wor - thy 19

Pno.

Org.

powers of glad - ness sure, With, you we con - quer, or with stars of hum - an fate, Be ye with us, and we for of that aft - er time Whose im - age fronts us now with 23

Pno.

Org.

you en - dure.
 joy can wait.
 looks sub - lime.